Deaf Missions Accredited by National Financial Accountability Organization

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IA – The ECFA (Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability) announced today the accreditation of Deaf Missions of Council Bluffs, IA.

ECFA accreditation is based on the ECFA Seven Standards of Responsible Stewardship™, including financial accountability, transparency, sound board governance and ethical fundraising.

Deaf Missions joins a growing number of Christ-centered churches and ministries across America, supported by over 20 million donors that have earned the right to display the ECFA seal. When an organization is accredited by ECFA, it demonstrates its willingness to follow the model of biblical accountability.

“We are pleased to accredit a ministry committed to effectively communicate the gospel of Jesus Christ with deaf people,” said Dan Busby, president of ECFA.

Founded in 1970, Deaf Missions (www.deafmissions.com) prepares and distributes Bible visuals, trains Christians to minister among the deaf, and does personal work with deaf people.

To learn more about Deaf Missions and their stewardship opportunities, visit ServantMatch®, ECFA’s program that matches God’s servants with the stewardship options of ECFA members based on ministry sectors and categories. It is ECFA’s newest online feature that allows you to quickly and easily find giving opportunities.

ECFA, founded in 1979, provides accreditation to leading Christian nonprofit organizations that faithfully demonstrate compliance with the ECFA Standards pertaining to financial accountability, fundraising and board governance.
